

Limit level monitoring of a waste chute

Client:

Cement plant (Germany)

Product:

Derived fuels

Conveyed volumes:

no information

Conveyor mechanism:

Chute

Installation location:

on 3 different levels in the waste chute

What measuring process was used previously:

none

According to the client, the ProGap system offers the following advantages:

- Reliable limit level notification on reaching the different levels
- Simple commissioning (even by customer)

Client benefits:

- Early detection of a material jam

